

Kimball Harrison

Virginia Beach, VA

E-Rate is essential in Virginia Beach City Public Schools. We provide Internet safety lessons, structured social networking experiences, and research opportunities for all students. If schools could not afford broadband connectivity with the help of E-Rate some students would grow up as though they were in a third world country and not have a safe place to learn appropriate technology practices.